

Note faithful recording of all five toes and the slight enlarging of the flange (illustrated by the fracture lines on the outside of the print). No fracture lines appear along the outside posterior; this indicates that the heel had been raised slightly during forward motion and lateral change of direction.

b Print 2 (1)
from [Trackway b]