

Reports of the Old-timers....

For some time work has been needed regarding first-hand and reported accounts attributed to the Old-timers. An extensive photocopied series of documents relate to this issue.

Charlie Moss was the first to report human footprints among the dinosaur footprints, and his handwritten letter appears here. In the following photopage he is shown with Rev. Stan Taylor and some of his prints on the park ledge.